Students with Disabilities: 	If you have a disability for which you may require academic accommodations for this class, please register with Disability Resources (DR) as soon as possible. Students who have an accommodation letter from DR are encouraged to meet privately with course faculty to discuss the provisions of those accommodations as early in the semester as possible. To qualify for accommodation assistance, students must first register to use the disability resources in DR, Science Center Rm. 2206, 812-464-1961, www.usi.edu/disabilities. To help ensure that accommodations will be available when needed, students are encouraged to meet with course faculty at least 7 days prior to the actual need for the accommodation. However, if you will be in an internship, field, clinical, student teaching, or other off-campus setting this semester please note that approved academic accommodations may not apply. Please contact Disability Resources as soon as possible to discuss accommodations needed for access while in this setting.
USI Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy:	USI does not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the University can help. It is important to know that federal regulations and University policy require faculty to promptly report incidences of potential sexual misconduct known to them to the Title IX Coordinator to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. The University will work with you to protect your privacy by sharing information with only those who need to know to ensure we can respond and assist. If you are seeking help and would like to speak to someone confidentially, you can make an appointment with a counselor in the University Counseling Center. Find more information about sexual violence, including campus and community resources at www.usi.edu/stopsexualassault.

Classroom Decorum:

Classroom Disruption:

Behavior that the professor views as substantially or repeatedly interfering with their ability to teach the class or the ability of other students to benefit from the instructional program is prohibited. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in any acts that result in disruption of a class may be directed by the faculty member to leave the class for the remainder of the class period. If a student continues to engage in any acts that results in disruption of the class, the professor reserves the right to have the student removed from the course.

Academic Honesty:

Seeking, obtaining, or accessing information in any form or by any method other than the unprompted knowledge of the student constitutes cheating. Cheating on a test will result in loss of ALL credit for that test. Plagiarism is the presentation of work or ideas of another as one's own. Plagiarism will result in loss of ALL credit for that paper. Repeated cheating and plagiarism will be referred to the Chair of the Department and the Dean of the School of Liberal Arts for additional review and disciplinary action.

Attendance, Participation, and Tardiness:

This course is primarily a lecture course; however, students are expected and encouraged to participate in class discussions. Roll will be taken at the beginning and end of each class. It is the responsibility of each student to sign the roll. This method of roll taking is utilized in order to eliminate disputes about actual attendance. Attendance is mandatory.

Cell Phones:

No cell phones are allowed in the classroom. No recording devices are allowed in the classroom. No devices with internet access are allowed in the classroom. If your cell phone goes off in class, you will be asked to leave.

Food in Class:

Please purchase all snacks before or after class. It is disruptive and disrespectful to the professor and fellow students to leave during class to visit the vending machines. Students are expected to clean up their surroundings before they leave the classroom.

Bathroom and Smoke Breaks:

Please use the restroom before or after class. It is disruptive and disrespectful to the professor and fellow students to leave during class. The University of Southern Indiana is a SMOKE FREE CAMPUS.

Class Withdrawal & Incomplete Policy

It is the student's responsibility to officially drop/withdraw from any courses before the deadline. The university does not withdraw students from any classes.
